
Valard invites interested members of the participating communities to apply for the following position on the Waasigan Transmission Project (Thunder Bay to Dryden)

Material Yard Foreman

Description and Job Duties:

- Lead and direct material yard personnel
- Setting up and maintaining material yard
- Complete cycle counts and track material quantities
- Complete material receiving documentation
- Complete crew timesheets
- Support equipment operators loading materials and placing dunnage
- Support truck drivers with hooking up trailers
- Responsible and accountable for the safe operation of the material yard
- Responsible for execution of material preservation processes
- Document and report employee injuries and work performance
- Other duties as required by the Material Manager and Project Leadership
- The role is seasonal and will experience gaps in work
- Selected candidates will need to sign up and maintain union membership

Requirements:

- 2+ years of supervisory experience in material management
- Maintain a valid Class G Driver's License
- Physically fit with the ability to handle materials
- Experience with digital forms and paperwork (material receiving applications)
- Experience with setting up and maintaining yards
- Experience with load securement
- Experience working in a busy environment with personnel and equipment
- Experience working with and overseeing workers in a multi-union environment
- Ability to work in all weather conditions
- Ability to work in a team
- Able to work a 20/8 shift in remote locations
- May be required to live in a camp environment

Positions available: 1 - 2

Estimated Start Date: August 1, 2024

Closing Date: July 19, 2024

Please forward resumes to recruitment@cmo-fn.ca